

Marcus Moore

Liz@HartTalentManagement.com/310-962-3093

Experience

National Correspondent, ABC News, Dallas, TX

October 2017 – Present

- Regional correspondent based in Dallas covering national stories including:
Border patrol/wall and immigrant issues, hurricanes and recently, California Wildfires
- Fill-in Anchor for ABC “America This Morning”

Anchor/Reporter, WFAA-TV, Dallas, TX

January 2012 – September 2017

- Anchored weekend morning newscasts
- Co-anchored wall-to-wall coverage of the 2015 Paris terror attacks
- Produced touchscreen reports on developing local and national news
- Live daily reporter and breaking news reporter

Reporter/fill-in anchor, KMBC-TV, Kansas City, MO

October 2005 – December 2011

- Lead nightside reporter for breaking local and national news
- Only local reporter to broadcast live from the rescue of 33 trapped miners at San Jose Mine in Copiapo, Chile
- Covered various live, breaking news during tornados

Anchor/Reporter, WAPT-TV, Jackson, MS

August 2003 – October 2005

- Weekend anchor and principal nightside reporter
- Covered Hurricane Katrina as it broke and delivered live, national stories
- Exclusive interview with Thomas Hamill, contractor, after his escape and return to Mississippi who was kidnapped in Iraq

Reporter/Fill-in Anchor, KOMU-TV, Columbia, MO

August 2001 – December 2002

Reporter, KTBX-TV, Byran, TX,

May 2000 – August 2001

Education

University of Missouri, Columbia, MO

Bachelor of Arts, Broadcast Journalism

Moscow State University

Continuing education, Moscow, Russia

Languages

Fluent in Spanish

Conversational in Russian

Skills

- ENPS
- Social Media, over 18K followers
- Extensive International travel and coverage

Awards/Memberships

Regional Emmy for 1-70 Turnpike Tornado Coverage

National Association of Black Journalists, Member